Examiner's Amendment/Reasons for Allowance

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

In the Claims

2. Claim 24, line 1, delete "claim 1" and insert –claim 21--.

Reasons for Allowance

3. Claims 21-24 are considered allowable since when reading the claims in light of the specification (MPEP § 211.01) or In re Sneed, 710 F.2d 1544, 1548, 218 USPQ 385, 388 (Fed. Cir. 1983), none of the references of record alone or in combination disclose or suggest the combination of limitations specified in independent claim 21, including "static data structure (125)" (supported at e. g., Fig. 1, ¶ 027), "dynamic data structure (135)" (supported at e. g. Fig. 1, ¶ 027), "working data" (supported at ¶ 027), "condition elements" (supported at e. g. ¶ 004), "data vector (256)" (supported at e. g. ¶ 034), "element (257)" (supported at e. g. ¶ 034), "storage locations (242)" (supported at e. g. Fig. 2, ¶ 034), "each storage location" (243) (supported at Fig. 2, ¶ 034), "current fact (200)" (supported at e. g. ¶ 037) wherein preallocated storage locations are arranged to allow efficient evaluation of the condition of each rule in a manner that improves efficiency of such evaluation vis-à-vis prior art.

The closest prior art (Masui et al., USPN 5,179,632) teaches a fast method for bidirectional inference using a rule condition part network and a rule consequence part network with inference developing from an integral network of both rule network along a pattern matchable network that sets a shortcut arc. However, Masui does not teach inter alia "determining whether a rule of the rules base is applicable by comparing the elements (257) of the data vector (256) in the static data structure (125) for said rule with the values stored in the corresponding storage locations (243) in the dynamic data structure (135) for said rule" (specification Figs. 1 and 2).

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
